

sod care instructions

	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 5	Day 7
1st Week	Water	Water	Water	Water	Mow
2nd Week	Water		Water	Water	Mow
3rd Week		Water		Water	Mow

First day watering. The sod should be soaked with water as soon as it is laid. Water each zone or section as soon as it is laid! Check by walking on it. If you make deep footprints, it has enough water. If the soil is firm, lift a sod and water the underside. Please follow the watering and care instructions below for the next several weeks. If the edges between the sod pull apart or are separating, you are not watering properly. Sod is perishable and must be installed immediately upon receipt and followed by a Proper watering is essential to establishment (rooting) of your new sod.

First day watering - Check your new sod a few hours after it has been laid by walking on it. If you make deep footprints, it has enough water. If the soil is firm, lift a sod and water the underside.

Worry-Free, Fast-Rooting Sod. Prepare your site before receiving your sod. Learn more in our soil preparation section. Lightly sprinkle water on.

How to Take Care of Sod. Sometimes aerating, seeding and watering are just not enough to get that lush, green lawn so many people desire. One way to ensure a lush lawn is to use high-quality sod. Saratoga Sod is cut fresh to order. It is a live, perishable product and must be installed and watered immediately upon delivery. For new sod care it is essential to follow these guidelines.

Lawn care and sod maintenance are very easy processes that allow you to grow a lush green lawn that you can enjoy for years to come. Below are some ways to ensure your lawn is healthy and thriving. Read a series of watering tips to know how much you should water your turfgrass sod for the best results. You just had your fresh new SOD installed, and your lawn has never looked better! No weeds and a full beautiful lushes green. But now what? The hardest part about caring for sod is doing the right things every day. After the first mow, it is safe to mow according to the mowing instructions for your sod.

Over-seeding can cure a lot of lawn problems, but if new sod is what your lawn needs, there are tips to help the sod take and result in a lush lawn. Caring for New Sod. Your new lawn is in and it looks great! Follow these special guidelines to ensure that it gets established in your soil. Make a plan for your lawn. Watering. After installation, this is where it all begins. Sod is a living product and needs attention when it is taking root. We recommend watering immediately. Follow these sod care instructions and you'll have a healthy, thick lawn that will add to the natural beauty of your home, and will be a pleasure for years to come.

New sod has shallow roots, which need time to establish in the soil. Proper watering, fertilizing and maintenance are vital to ensuring your new sod is healthy and thriving. Enabling the growth and health of fresh new sod is the first building block to a vibrant new lawn. Learn how to properly care for new sod with these tips. Landscaping Tips, Lawn Care and Maintenance / Leave a comment. To maintain your investment we always recommend hiring a lawn care professional. Read labels carefully and follow instructions for newly laid grass and for your particular sod. Proper soil preparation is the most important step for a successful lawn. The goal is to provide a good base in which the grass roots can vigorously establish and thrive. The type of care needed after you've installed your lawn is different depending on the sod. For post-installation watering, follow the instructions provided by the sod supplier.

[\[PDF\] sysco product guide pdf](#)

[\[PDF\] john deere 710g specifications](#)

[\[PDF\] barbie volkswagen van](#)

[\[PDF\] youtube com vidos](#)

[\[PDF\] eve pvp guide pdf](#)

[\[PDF\] lux guide 5.2](#)

[\[PDF\] rocketfish wireless headphones troubleshooting](#)